DETAILED ACTION

Applicant's arguments filed 5/7/08 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. See argument below. Previous rejections not addressed below are withdrawn for consideration.

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claim 46 remains rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 46 recites the limitation "hydrotalcite" in line 2. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim. Hydrotalcite is aluminum based.

Response to Applicants' argument

The Applicants argue that hydrotalcite type compounds are compounds with a similar structure to that of an aluminum containing compound, but need not be an aluminum containing hydrotalcite compound. The support for such reasoning is in the specification at page 3 where it is stated, "preferred mixed metal hydroxy carbonates containing each of magnesium and iron are of a hydrotalcite structure." Applicant further states, "This teaching makes clear that actual presence of aluminum is unnecessary to the application; rather, all that is required is that the compound have a hydrotalcite structure."

The Examiner argues that nowhere in the specification including page 3 of the specification is it disclosed that a hydrotalcite type structure does not contain aluminum. For this reason the rejection is maintained. The phrase "hydrotalcite type compounds" is not recited in the body of the specification.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 16-23, 25-28, 43-47 remain rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-10 of U.S. Patent No. 6926912. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because both USPN '912 and instant invention makes claim to a method of treating hyperphosphataemia comprising administering to an animal a phosphate-binding, mixed metal compound which is free of aluminum and containing iron (III) and an additional metal (M) such as magnesium, lanthanum, calcium or cerium. Both invention also make claim to the same phosphate binding capacity of at least 30% by weight, as measured by any of the methods specified in instant claim 4 or USPN '912 claim 1, over a pH range of 3 to 7. The reference does not make claim to the method comprising a ratio of M:Fe. However, if both M and Fe are present in a composition there would be inherently a ratio between the two (M and Fe) and that ratio could be the any one of the claimed ratios.

Art Unit: 1616

Response to Applicants' Argument

The Examiner acknowledges the Applicants' willingness to consider the filing a terminal disclaimer once claims are in condition for allowance.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
